AMATEUR ATHLETICS IN UTAH—GOVERNING BODY NEEDED

By Elwood S. Brown, Y. M. C. A.

At a recent meeting of the Utah Intercollegiate association, the clause pertaining to amateur athletics was reaffirmed and the representatives present pledged themselves to make a determined effort toward seeing that it is maintained. This clause states that no man who has ever received money for competing in athletics may represent any of the institutions in the association, on its athletic teams.

However, there seems to be a chance for trouble at this time, because of the fact that the members present decided that this rule should be interpreted as affecting only those who have played basketball in the state league. While the attitude of the members of the Intercollegiate association indicates that a definite step in the right direction has been taken, still no ultimate good will be accomplished if the rule is interpreted as above mentioned, because that interpretation is almost manifestly at only one or two men and does not by any means solve the amateur-professional question, either in the colleges or in the state at large.

Present Conditions.

If we go about to remedy an existing evil, we must first of all determine what the evil is, and then map out a scheme which will be adequate and comprehensive enough to accomplish the desired end. For a long time the colleges have been leaders in the athletics of the state, and whatever rules seemed wise to them had to be wise for everybody else. Conditions have changed in the past two or three years, and now we have high schools, athletic clubs, military bodies, the Y. M. C. A. and a great many other organizations competing in amateur athletics. While the colleges are adequate to control the situation in so far as it pertains to competition between the colleges, there is no controlling body for the other organizations and no controlling body for competition between colleges and these other organizations. Addition to this no adequate conception of the differences between an amateur and a professional athlete has ever been impressed upon the mind of this state.

Amateur Status.

Under the rules of every amateur athletic body in the world the two fundamentals of amateurism are—that no man can further be considered an amateur if he has received money for competing in athletic sport for money, or if he enters a competition for money. A distinct line of demarcation is drawn, and the man who competes in athletics for the pleasure and distinction it gives him, and the man who competes for money, are clearly half-way steps. There is no degree of professionalism. A man is a professional if he has taken a cent just as much as if he had taken $100.

Under the ruling of the Utah Intercollegiate association, a man who played basketball and received a small amount on the quiet is still an amateur and eligible to compete, while a man who played on a professional team and did it openly is a professional. Professionalism in a strict sense has been rampant in the state for many years through ignorance. Athletes have not considered that they were forfeiting their amateur standing by running through the church and lodge pin money for cash prizes; neither have they considered it an act of professionalism to play on a baseball team and receive a salary. So many of these things have happened and are still happening as to technically make almost every athlete in Utah a professional. This condition has

WESTERN CONFERENCE MEET TO GO TO ILLINOIS

Chicago, Dec. 4.—It is likely that the conference championship games will be shifted next June after many years from the grounds of the University of Chicago Marshall field to the track of the University of Illinois. The Illinois have made application for the meet. They want it chiefly because there is a falling off in interest in track and field sports at their university, and they believe there will be an immediate awakening in the sport.

There is not likely to be any serious opposition from Chicago. Indeed, officials in authority there say that if the Illinois folks are at all anxious to get the games they must make a big effort to take a great deal of time and trouble to prepare properly for the meet, and the Chicago folks will be glad to spare the place for a season or so. It is doubtful whether the games would make as much money at Champaign as they do at Chicago, but that is a consideration of which the conference intercollegiate association undoubtedly will take notice.

AT JACKSONVILLE.

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 4.—Over 5,000 people witnessed an exciting program at Moncrief Park today. The Quickstep hand-picked, the feature of the afternoon, went to Sir Ormonde, who was freely offered at 10 to 1. Jockey Howard got the Ross off nicely and led all the way, but he was held back by a bad start and the head of the stretch to drive off the challenge of Hoffman. The latter was favorite.

AT TAMPA.

Tampa, Fla., Dec. 4.—Five favorites won and rewarded a tremendous crowd at the Tampa Bay track this afternoon. Ideal weather prevailed, and well-balanced fields went to the post. The good thing of the day was that, who has not been at her best at previous starts. The word went around that she was right, and a barrel of money went in on her. Summary:
First race, five and a half furlongs, selling—Pores, 7 to 10, won; Eva Tanguay, 2 to 1, second; Captain Gore, 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:32 3/5.

GANS SAYS JOHNSON.

New York, Dec. 4.—Joe Gans, former lightweight champion, who came to New York to witness the signing of articles for the Jeffries-Johnson fight, believes that Johnson will be an easy winner.
"Jeffries was a world-beater in his prime," said Gans, "but, like myself, he can never come back." Johnson is the cleverest big man in the world. He is more scientific than Jim Corbett and is a harder hitter. He will hit Jeffries out and will be the winner in less than twenty-five rounds."

UNIVERSITY FIVE AFTER STATE TITLE

Coach Maddock Has Speedy Bunch—Interest in Game Is Active.

With the close of the Utah football season the university men are preparing for a season of conquest in basketball. The promise for a championship team at the beginning of the season when the first call was made for basketball men twelve men responded. This was so exceptional that the hopes of the Utah supporters for a championship team were immediately raised. With the progress of a few days the material gradually came out so that at the present time there are over thirty men working out for positions on the squad which has thus far shown up is composed of experienced men, so that the usual drilling in the tactics of the game will be done away with.

With such a squad of men in the field, all of whom are good men, the university men are enabled to have two first-class teams. This will give the men on the first squad an opportunity to get valuable practice for the state in the winter. The schedule for the season will be arranged by the coach, who will permit each team to go through the season with a very slight expense. For the Utah end of the schedule it will permit the Utah team to get through with the basketball season and then have abundant time to enter into competition with the teams from Colorado for the Rocky Mountain championship. As yet Manager Robinson has been unable to get any definite word from the Colorado schools, but it is expected that the Utah team will be able to get a schedule which will give the university a chance to compete for the Rocky Mountain championship.

Veterans Are Out.

The men who at the present time compose the Utah squad are Captain Horsfall, Holmsted, Evans, Romney, Roskelly and Erickson. Evans and Erickson are both playing their second year as members of the first squad. Captain Horsfall is one of the most reliable men on the Utah team and will be watched. The most promising of these are: Hall, Paul, Briggs and Richards.

The last season he played with the B. Y. C. team of Logan and when he won the championship of the state. The other three men were on High school teams of last year. Evans and Holmsted played on the championship Lehi High school team of last year and since coming to the University have shown wonderful improvement over last year. Romney played on the Salt Lake High school team of last year and will make an excellent team mate at the forward position for Evans the coming year. Coach Maddock says that in the second team he has some men who are to be watched. The most promising of these are: Hall, Paul, Briggs and Richards.

who played excellent ball on university teams last year; Barker, who played a forward position on the Los Angeles High school team of last year; Knowlton and Howells, who played sub positions on the first team of last year, and Sam Brinkman, the crack sprinter who has developed into a fast and consistent basketball man. With this aggregation to pick from Coach Maddock expects to win the Utah championship this year.

The first scheduled game of the season will be played with the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night at the association gymnasium. The second teams of both institutions will also meet.

LOOKS LIKE GEIDEL AS YOKEL'S OPPONENT

The Y. M. C. A. yesterday received a telegram from Paul Geidel, wrestling instructor of the Chicago Athletic Club, containing a favorable reply to the proposition advanced for a meeting between Geidel and Mike Yokel. The match will be made seems certain, and Salt Lake will get a match between two of the best welterweights on the mat.

TWO ALL STATE TEAMS

By J. O. Cross of Ogden.
Left tackle, Oldham, Ogden.
Left guard, Sample, Ogden.
Center, White, Granite.
Right guard, Wheeling, Salt Lake.
Right tackle, Watson, Ogden.
Right end, Gallacher, Salt Lake.
Quarter, Fitzpatrick, Salt Lake.
Left half, Goodspeed, Salt Lake.
Right half, Leggroan, Granite.
Fullback, Ashton, Granite.

In selecting an All-State High school team, much depends on the point of view. If the chosen eleven were to meet only Utah opponents, lighter players might be awarded the highest honor of the gridiron, but the time has come when out of high schools should measure up to the athletic efficiency of other western states.

The decisive defeat of Granite by Butte gives us a good opportunity of comparing our own conditions with those of the Pacific northwest, and of Colorado, our neighbor to the east, since Longmont is scheduled to play against Butte in the near future. If the Ann Arbor eleven secures a game in Utah, the scope of comparison would be widened and the Pacific slope.

It is undeniably true that the Utah champions would find it hard to handle outside opponents, chiefly because of their lack of avoidpools. Accordingly, in this selection an effort has been made to assemble a group of players who possess the necessary weight.

Backfield Easy.

The back field presents no serious difficulty. Ashton at full, Leggroan at half, and Fitzpatrick at quarterback have their places by work that has been not only conscientious and consistent, but at times brilliant. Stone of Ogden in some particulars has played a better game than Goodspeed, but the latter's longer experience gives him the position of the year.

At center, the Veteran White of Granite has shown the best form, both in passing the ball and in defensive work. Sample is clearly the best guard of the year; in fact, the only one worthy of the name. It is no easy matter to name his runner, but after long consideration Wheeling of Salt Lake has been chosen for several reasons. The team needs a punter, and Wheeling is an excellent one, and his opponents on an average of ten to twenty yards; furthermore, he has the necessary hold to hold the ball and his defensive work is of the highest order.

Watson at Tackle.

Watson of Ogden is a tackle of more than high school class in weight, speed and football knowledge. Less ground has been gained through him this year than through any other line man. Captain Douglas, who has played fullback this year, is a natural tackle, and has been chosen for the other tackle position because of past performance and his unequalled aggressiveness in attacking the ship, efficient defensive work.

Two ends stand out prominently above the crowd. Both are excellent players, undoubtedly the season's fastest player, and Oldham of Ogden, whose fierce low diving tackle has aroused the enthusiasm of the experts.

Second Team.

In the second team, there is a wealth of football material, which would give a good account of itself if properly coached. The work of one man in the second team is worthy of special commendation. Boyle of All Hallows, in spite of the fact that he has been injured and the selection has been not an easy one to make, I believe, however, the eleven named is rightfully that of an elite class.
